

Plate 1: View from the Teberobie waste rock dump over affected secondary forest towards Teberobie

Plate 2: Cassava cultivated in clearings within the affected area.

Plate 3: Pineapple and banana trees being cultivated within the affected area, adjacent to affected footpath.

Plate 4: The resettlement team walks through an affected tomato farm, one of a very few which are being used on a commercial basis.

Plate 5: New structures being erected within the affected area.

Plate 6: Galamsey operations along the main road leading into Tarkwa.

Plate 7: Section of the crowd at a resettlement planning meeting with affected farmers in Teberebie.

Plate 8: Members of the resettlement planning team at a meeting in Teberebie. On the far left, Albert Quansah of CARE, third from left, Dr Agyemang-Mensah, and on his right, Justin Pooley.

Plate 9: Members of the enumeration team.